Dear Horsemen:

It's that time of year – time to celebrate Maryland's Day at the Races! Jim McKay Maryland Million Day, October 22nd, is a day for Laurel Park to shine. But we are most proud of you and your horses who put on the show.

This showcase event for Maryland's horse industry could not be any more important than it is this year. As we welcome new fans and greet old friends, we are showing them the importance of the horse industry with this event. We tell them that it is about the land; it is about the jobs and the dedication of people who devote their lives to working with horses. On Maryland Million Day we want all that work to pay off in the winner's circle – the happiest place at the track.

Since 1986 Jim McKay Maryland Million Day has paid out more than $37 million in purses and awards. That fact is very important because of the reinvestment that happens when you breed to a Maryland stallion, buy a Maryland-sired horse or race at a Maryland track.

Maryland produces great horses and great people, and Jim McKay Maryland Million Day gives everyone a chance to shine. We celebrate all the passion, property, and purpose that the horse industry contributes to Maryland.

Thank you for your support of Jim McKay Maryland Million Day!

We wish you the best of racing luck.

Cricket Goodall
Executive Director
Maryland Million, Ltd.

Joe Kelly

Unsung Hero Award

The tenth annual Unsung Hero Award will again be given this year in honor of Joe Kelly. Joe was the first and only publicist for the Jim McKay Maryland Million Day racing program. As a close friend of founder Jim McKay he was involved from the introduction of the concept in 1985 until his death in 2012. He was a mentor to writers, horsemen and fans alike, and loved our sport from his early days as a sports writer.

Joe Kelly embodied the character of the unsung hero. He was quiet and unassuming, and never sought personal attention or credit, yet was a role model for many. With this award his memory lives on, and is acknowledged annually on Jim McKay Maryland Million Day.

Your unsung hero candidate should embody characteristics that are valuable, but often go unrewarded. He or she should be honest, hardworking and humble. They should inspire and set a good example through their principles and actions.

To nominate your candidate you can request a nomination form by contacting the Maryland Million Ltd. office – either by phone, 410-252-2100 ext. 110, or e-mail bremsberg@marylandthoroughbred.com – or go to the Maryland Million website at MarylandMillion.com.
